

St. Petersburg Times Monday, December 23, 1968 CLASSIFIED 85-Cms. 9-8 Xms NORTH SUNCOAST SECTION B

Frogs, Snakes, Gators... And Steps In The Water

By BOB STARR
In the latest edition of a three-volume series, the Charlotte County deputy sheriff stated Wednesday in a report that he had found the remains of a crocodile in the water.

A crocodile was found in the water near the entrance of the waterway, the sheriff stated. The crocodile was found in the water near the entrance of the waterway, the sheriff stated.

... (rest of article text) ...

SPURNS ATTORNEY; BOND $500,000

Accused Kidnaper Jailed After Hospital Treatment

By VIRGINIA LANG
St. Petersburg Correspondent

FRANK MESSER — head of the St. Petersburg Police Department — was yesterday morning the Gary Krieger, accused kidnaper of the 11-year-old boy, Robert Mackle, in a jail cell. Krieger was arrested by the St. Petersburg Police Department.

... (rest of article text) ...

Robert Mackle, Daughter Barbara Jean Beam At Press Conference

DIDN'T CHANGE A THING

Critique Of Plan Futile

Second Of A Series
By EDWARD HENNING
St. Petersburg Staff

The city's plan to improve the Florida Planning Department in the second and third articles of the series.

... (rest of article text) ...

SAFETY COUNCIL

Safety Council Seeks Effective Approach

By JOHN WARD
St. Petersburg Staff

The St. Petersburg Safety Council is seeking an effective approach to reduce the number of accidents.

... (rest of article text) ...

BLOND SOUGHT IN KIDNAPING

Scooter A Turning Point In Ruth Schier's Life

By VIRGINIA LANG
St. Petersburg Correspondent

Blond sought in kidnaping. Scooter a turning point in Ruth Schier's life.

... (rest of article text) ...

Ruth Schier

Clipped By:

jerrwilliamsauthor
Tue, Mar 12, 2019