The Grand Jury charges that:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. The “Harvey Hustlers” originated in the Harvey area of Jefferson Parish, Louisiana in the mid-1980s. Members of the organization “hustled” meaning they distributed illegal narcotics. The original goal of the Harvey Hustlers was to make money from the sale of illegal narcotics.

2. The “Murder Squad,” also referred to as “MS”, is a neighborhood group composed primarily of individuals residing in the Harvey area of Jefferson Parish, Louisiana. The Murder Squad (“MS”) is a faction of and part of the Harvey Hustlers organization. While they primarily operate on the Westbank of Jefferson Parish, members would conduct business in other parts of the Eastern District of Louisiana.

3. As time progressed, various members of the original Harvey Hustlers were arrested and/or imprisoned. Eventually, other members of the Harvey Hustlers took over in the early 2000s. The organization and its members sought to make money through the distribution of illegal narcotics, primarily cocaine hydrochloride (cocaine) and cocaine base (crack) and used violence to protect its turf. An unindicted co-conspirator hereinafter referred to as “D.W.” led the organization beginning in the early 2000s. D.W. was the son of an original Harvey Hustler. D.W. provided his drug and money connections to the organization. D.W. maintained control over how drugs were distributed in the area and used other Harvey Hustler members as “muscle” for the organization to commit violent acts within the community.

4. Sometime in the late 2000s, several Harvey Hustler members disagreed with how D.W. ran the organization and formed the Murder Squad. The Murder Squad faction was not only interested in selling drugs, but also interested in committing acts of violence within the community. Despite their differences, the Murder Squad was dependant on the Harvey Hustlers for the majority of its drug and money supply, and in essence, the Murder Squad became the enforcement faction of the Harvey Hustlers.

5. At all times relevant to this Third Superseding Indictment, the following defendants were members of the Murder Squad faction of the Harvey Hustlers: MELVIN HUDSON, a/k/a “Kane” a/ka “Keenan,” JERMAINE HUDSON, a/k/a “Fresh,” TRAVIS HUDSON, MOSES LAWSON, a/k/a “Moes,” MONTERIO WIGGINS, a/k/a “Peedy,” RODERICK WIGGINS, a/k/a “Chucky,” a/k/a “Donald Carson,” DANTE CARSON, a/k/a “Tae,” DWIGHT CARSON, a/k/a “Coobie,” and TOREY RICHARDSON, a/k/a “Toe.”

6. At all relevant times to this Third Superseding Indictment, members of the Murder Squad faction from time to time signified their membership by wearing tattoos reading “MS”. Some Murder Squad faction members also wore “Harvey Hustler” or “HH” tattoos.

(Conspiracy to Participate in a Racketeering (RICO) Enterprise)

The Racketeering Enterprise

7. Paragraphs one through six are hereby realleged and incorporated as if fully set forth herein.

8. At all times relevant to this Third Superseding Indictment, the Harvey Hustlers, including its Murder Squad faction, (hereinafter “Harvey Hustlers/Murder Squad”) is a criminal organization whose members and associates engaged in, among other things, conspiracy to distribute and possess with intent to distribute controlled substances, distribution and possession with intent to distribute controlled substances, use of communication facilities to distribute controlled substances, murder, attempted murder, kidnaping, robbery, and obstruction of justice.

The Murder Squad faction members committed acts of violence to maintain membership and discipline within the organization and to cause fear and compliance with individuals outside the organization. Participation in criminal activity by a member, particularly violent acts directed at rival individuals or as directed by the organization's leadership, increased the respect accorded to that member, sometimes resulting in that member maintaining or increasing his position in the organization.

9. The Harvey Hustlers/Murder Squad, including its leadership, members, and associates, constituted an "enterprise" as that term is defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members and associates functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise. This enterprise was engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce.

Purposes of the Enterprise

10. The purposes of the enterprise included but are not limited to:
- a. Enriching the members and associates of the enterprise through, among other things, the control of and participation in the distribution of controlled substances in the territory controlled by the enterprise;
 - b. Enriching the members and associates of the enterprise through, among other things, violence and threats of violence, assault, robbery and murder;
 - c. Preserving and protecting the power, territory and profits of the enterprise through the use of intimidation, violence, threats of violence, assault, kidnapping and murder;
 - d. Promoting and enhancing the activities and authority of the enterprise and its members and associates;

e. Keeping victims, potential victims and witnesses in fear of the enterprise and in fear of its members and associates through violence and threats of violence;

f. Providing financial support and information to members of the enterprise, including those who were incarcerated for committing acts of violence, robbery, distribution of controlled substances and other offenses; and

g. Providing assistance to members of the enterprise who committed crimes for and on behalf of the enterprise in order to hinder, obstruct and prevent law enforcement officers from identifying the offender or offenders, apprehending the offender or offenders, and prosecuting and punishing the offender or offenders.

Means and Methods of the Enterprise

11. Among the means and methods by which the defendants and their associates conducted and participated in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise, included but were not limited to, the following:

a. Members of the enterprise and their associates committed, attempted and threatened to commit acts of violence, including murder and robbery, to protect and expand the criminal operations of the enterprise.

b. Members of the enterprise and their associates promoted a climate of fear through violence and threats of violence. Members threatened victims who owed them money and/or acted disrespectfully towards them. They retaliated against people who tried to move into their territory and take business away from them. Members threw bricks through windows, shot at cars and houses, and made threatening phone calls to victims in order to deter their cooperation with law enforcement. Victims' family members have been threatened by members who told them they were going to kill their entire family for cooperating with police.

c. Members of the enterprise and their associates used and threatened to use physical violence against various individuals. Victims, including, but not limited to, girlfriends, wives, mothers and other associates of the members, have been physically beat, cut, tied up, shot at and murdered.

d. Members of the enterprise and their associates engaged in the distribution of controlled substances as a means to generate income. Members have been arrested repeatedly with crack cocaine, marijuana, ecstasy and heroin. In several instances members who were stopped by police would be in possession of narcotics packaged for distribution, as well as large sums of cash that could not be accounted for by legal employment. Members have had search warrants executed on their residences, where various quantities of illegal narcotics have been recovered.

e. Members of the enterprise possessed and utilized firearms to prevent competition from other drug dealers in and around the geographic area used and controlled by the enterprise.

f. Members of the enterprise possessed and utilized firearms in order to protect their business of distributing controlled substances. Members carried weapons whenever possible. Most members are convicted felons and, therefore prohibited from carrying a firearm.

g. Members of the enterprise utilized firearms to maintain and advance the goals of the enterprise.

h. Members of the enterprise purchased, maintained and circulated a collection of firearms for use in criminal activity by the enterprise members. Members who could not legally buy firearms would steal and/or trade firearms for drugs. Members also enlisted the use of straw purchasers. A girlfriend/sister/friend of a member would be asked to go to pawn shops and/or gun shows and purchase weapons and ammunition for the organization. Members would then tell the straw purchaser to report the firearm stolen. Members often passed guns around after they were used. Members also “held” on to guns for other members by storing them in attics, backyards or family member’s houses that were not seen as targets to law enforcement. According to the National Integrated Ballistic Information Network, some firearms the Harvey Hustlers /Murder Squad had acquired were used several times before they were recovered. Several firearms that were associated with crimes still remain on the street.
